

Chelsea Police Department Weekly Press Summary

Incident #: 22-143	Location: 500 block of Chandler St.
Date: 01/14/2022		Time: 8:21 am
INFORMATION: While on routine patrol, officers were dispatched to the 500 block of Chandler Street for the report of a dispute between two residents of a house. Upon arrival the officers met with the original complainant who stated that they had gotten into an argument with a live in caretaker who was asked to leave. While speaking with the complainant, the live in caretaker shouted out “She slapped me!” when referring to the complainant. The officers separated the parties involved and conducted interviews with all of the parties involved. The victim who reported that she had been slapped opted to leave the residence and let the situation deescalate. The complainant/suspect a 49-year-old Chelsea resident was left at her residence. The case will be submitted to the Washtenaw County Prosecutor’s office for review to determine if any charges would be authorized.
